THE LAST SUPPER

At Sarasota Yacht Club

Do not fear, it's not over yet. Though this will be our last meal in this building, The Sarasota Keys Rotary Club will remain a strong viable force within this community. We will be temporarily meeting at the University Club located in Downtown Sarasota. Once the new Yacht Club is erected we will be back!

Thank you, Winnie, Victor, Angel and the entire staff of the Yacht Club for your wonderful service. We look forward to returning to

Members Corner: Tony I.

The meeting today will be our last meeting at the Sarasota Yacht club, at least for 18 months.

The Yacht club has advised they will be preparing a special luncheon that day so don't miss it. It will also be the last meeting for Dave Pilston as President of our Club.

Its been a great year and we accomplished many things. This was our biggest year for the Juvenile Diabetes walk, our Youth award dinner was one of the best. We sent 4 young people to S4TL. Our Legacy

Society Dinner has grown as many new members come on board. We had a booth at the Reading Festival and passed out our new brochures telling everyone about Rotary. Our Gift of Life program has grown and more funds have been collected to bring children here from 3rd world countries for heart surgery. We resumed the Service Above Self Awards this year. We even went to the opera to see the youth opera group perform. Our President even appeared Mozart's opera Così fan tutte

Our committees formed by Dave were able to accomplish many things this year. Board meetings were discussed at our regular meetings thereby letting everyone know what was going on. We look forward to greater things next year. Oh Yes, I did finally publish my Cook book.

Remember, there is no meeting on next week, enjoy your fourth of July weekend. We will see you at the University Club on July 10th.

Tony I.
